

Biography

YIN, Bojie, born in Hunan, China, started her first piano lesson at age 4. She was admitted to the Conducting Department of Shanghai Music Conservatory in 2008, and in 2013, she graduated with two bachelor degrees in Vocal Accompanying & Coaching and Choral Conducting. In 2011, she won the Encouragement Award in the China National Chorus Conducting Competition.

Then she went to pursue her master's degree in Conservatorio di Musica "Arrigo Boito" di Parma, majoring in Piano Accompaniment and Collaboration, under the guidance of Ms. Carmen Santoro and Mr. Raffaele Cortesi. In 2015, she was in the course for répétiteurs of the "Adriano Belli" teatro lirico sperimento, Spoleto. Currently she works as the maestro collaboratore of Accademia di Maggio Muscale Fiorentino di Firenze.

Her engagements include: Assistant conductor in collaboration with Shanghai Opera for numerous operas and concerts. From 2011 to 2013, assistant conductor and pianist for Shanghai Radio Children's Chorus, which, under her baton, won the golden award at the 7th International Chorus Competition, children's principal, in the United States of America. Other notable engagements are: Pianist for the masterclasses of Dona. D. Vaughn, Enza Federica Ferrari and Hartmut Höll. Rehearsal pianist for Le Nozze di Figaro in 2010. Pianist for "I Sing - International Young Artist Festival" from 2012 to 2015. Intern pianist at National Center for the Performing Arts of China in 2012. Pianist for Mahler's "Das Lied von der Erde" ( Schoenberg's version) at Shanghai Oriental Art Center in 2013. Accompanying pianist for the concert of "suoni di gloria i cantici" at Verdi Festival in Parma in 2014.

In July, 2015, after beating over 300 competitors, Ms. Yin was selected to the "Academy of Riccardo Muti" to be the répétiteur, working as Maestro Riccardo Muti's rehearsal pianist, for the opera Falstaff. In April, 2016, as the rehearsal pianist to Maestro Riccardo Muti, Ms. Yin was offered to worked with Chicago Symphony Orchestra for the opera Falstaff.

